

THE NEWPORT PLAIN TALK

VOL. XI

NEWPORT, TENNESSEE, THURSDAY, MAY 18, 1911

(Eight Pages)

NO. 47

PROF. MOORE TO RETURN

To Again Head The Newport High School.

ANNOUNCEMENT IS MADE

Has Had a Very Successful Year
—It Was Announced that Prof. Driskill Will Not be With the School Next Year.

The commencement exercises of the Newport High School were held Friday night in the Opera House, and there was a large attendance, and the exercises were a success in every way. Five young ladies and three young men were presented with diplomas, some closing forever their school career, while others are prepared for a higher course of study in the colleges. A pleasing portion of the exercises was the announcement of Prof. Moore's acceptance of the principleship of the school for another year. In closing the exercises he made a very pleasing talk on the work of the year, and stated that he was grateful for the encouragements shown him here this year by the patrons and that he had not the heart to say that his work was finished here, and that instead he would be back again next year and that with the co-operation of the board of education and the patrons of the school he would put the educational facilities on a higher plane than ever before. Prof. Moore paid tribute to the worth of Prof. Driskill who has been his assistant during the year and stated that he regretted to announce that Prof. Driskill would not be associated with the school next year.

Prizes for the best spellers in the seventh and eighth grades were distributed by Prof. Driskill. Miss Bessie McMahan won two prizes for not having missed a word, orally in both the spring and fall terms in the seventh grade. Miss Edna Stuart won the prize for not having missed any in the fall term of the eighth grade and Miss Martha Lindsay won the prize for the spring term. Askew Turner, the only boy who has ever passed through five months of schooling under Prof. Driskill without having missed a word, and Miss Mayme Boyer, Elma Talley, May Hartsell and Ernestine Robeson besides the prize winners came in for honorable mention and were called to the platform and presented to the audience. Prof. Driskill announced that Miss Elma Talley had not during three years missed a word in oral spelling.

The program was as printed with the exception that Mrs. Jettie Lea was substituted for an instrumental solo in place of Mrs. Blair who was ill and couldn't attend and that Miss Annie Gardner also rendered an instrumental solo.

There was considerable amusement manifested in both the class prophesy and the class will, at the numerous prophesies and legacies. The prophesy was read by Miss Mary Graham Robinson and the will by J. Allen Glenn.

In presenting the diplomas, Rev. J. W. O'Hara very pleasingly embodied the subject of the essay and the oration in his word of encouragement. The graduating class and their subjects were as follows:

Essays—"Music," Kate V. A. Brown; "Character," Mazie M. Hawk; "The Power of Good Women," Mary Graham Robinson; "Sailing," Edna Smith; "Dreams," Judith C. Smith.

Music Orations—"Peace Versus War," Hiriam S. Balch; "Duty of Young Americans," Guy E. Cate; "Tennessee," J. Allen Glenn.

ATTENDING THE FARMER'S INSTITUTE

A score of Cocke county farmers went to Knoxville to attend the Farmers' Institute of the State.

Vice President J. C. Easterly of Cocke county preceded the other delegates, Monday.
